

Murder Mystery 2010

Buy your tickets on line at www.llangollen-railway.com

Our next presentation is on Saturday 8th May 2010
'The Baker Street Murders'

The world's greatest detective? Or, the World's greatest murderer?
A famous Detective has been imprisoned, accused of a monstrous crime. His trustworthy assistant is left trying to prove his friend's innocence in the face of damning evidence. With the clock ticking and without the help of the great Detective his assistant faces a race against time to beat the Hangman's Noose!

Please arrive at 7pm

Food served on platform 1 at 7.15pm

The Plot commences at 7.30pm

Step on Board our popular Murder Mysteries.
Witness intrigue, drama and murder and become a detective for the evening to find out whodunit.

Tickets £23* per person

Includes food, a return journey on the train & a chance to be a Miss Marple or Poirot for the evening.

Can you solve the Mystery?

Buy your tickets on line at www.llangollen-railway.com or telephone 01978 860979

£2.50 booking fee per transaction not per ticket

*Please note that the 6th November 2010 Murder Mystery includes fireworks and tickets are priced at £26 per person
ON BOARD BAR FULLY LICENSED

Future Presentations

Saturday 17th July 2010 – Murder onboard the Abbey Express

Father O'Leary is escorting a party of Nuns by train to a 'retreat' in the ruins of the 'Valle Crucis Abbey', located just outside of the town of Llangollen, when they discover that the local Mafia have also boarded the train. All is clearly not what it seems and mystery and murder is afoot.

Saturday 28th August 2010 – The Murder at Moulin Rouge

Mayhem, Mystery and Murder and that's just backstage. Trouble is afoot as a star member of the Moulin Rouge cast has been murdered. Our intrepid French Inspector has been called, but can he solve the murder, catch the killer and save the whole show before the Grand Opening?

Saturday 18th September 2010 – Murder in the Wild West

Tensions run high when Jolene, the youngest sister of the roughest, toughest outlaw family of the Wild West wants to bring her sweetheart into the family business - but there's something strange about this cowboy. As murderous events unfold - Is he responsible? An innocent bystander? Or is something more sinister going on?

Saturday 6th November 2010 – Theme to be confirmed

Please note that fireworks included with this presentation and tickets are priced at £26 per person